

Granya González celebrates her fifth anniversary

The Cristal Center for Endermology and Aesthetics has arrived at its fifth anniversary. This center, owned by nutritionist Granya González and located in Parque Cristal in Caracas, has become an icon for people who, in the midst of busy city life, aspire to be at their best inside and out. González offers her clientele 20 years of experience in the field of nutrition. She has a degree in Nutrition and Dietetics from Caracas' Universidad Central, a postgraduate degree in Food Science from Simon Bolivar University and has attended several training courses in the U.S. and France.
